Description

Discover our Europallet CR1 (1200 x 800 x H 160 mm) - perfect for food-related applications! At Transoplast, we aim to provide high-quality solutions that meet all your logistics needs. Our CR1 pallet is carefully designed to meet the highest standards for safety and efficiency during transport and storage.

With three longitudinal pallet runners, closed blocks at the bottom, and ribbed pallet runners, our pallet offers excellent grip and stability for your load. The absence of raised edges minimizes damage to your goods during loading and unloading. Additionally, anti-slip strips are applied to the pallet deck for extra safety.

To secure your load firmly, convenient cutouts are made in the pallet for securing straps, preventing any shifting. These features make our CR1 pallet ideal for various logistics applications such as warehouses and distribution centers.

With impressive load capacities of 5000 kg static, 1250 kg dynamic, and 1000 kg in pallet racking, our pallet offers not only strength but also durability. We take pride in delivering products that meet the highest standards in the logistics sector.

At Transoplast, we continually strive to provide solutions that exceed your expectations and enhance your logistics processes.

Discover how our CR1 pallet can contribute to smooth and efficient transportation of your goods.
